

The brand new Advanced Wound Product Certification (AWPC) publically affirms that you are a cut above other wound care sales and marketing professionals. It tells your customers that you are committed to serving them and their patients at the highest level by mastering the knowledge and skills needed to understand the most important aspects of wound care.

BENEFITS:

Demonstrate that you are dedicated to professional excellence and deeply invested in patient outcomes

Differentiate yourself from your competitors

Validate that you understand the clinical problems that your customers face every day

Earn respect of your customers as a value added consultant, not just a salesperson

EXAM DETAILS

- 50 questions
- Passing score = 85%
- Remote exam proctoring available
- Exam Fee = $99

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

- At least 1 year in Wound Care Sales
- Completion of an approved Wound Care Training Course

Upon passing the AWPC certification exam, candidates will earn the Advanced Wound Product Certification (AWPC), and may use the initials AWPC, Advanced Wound Product Certified to officially designate their status as a true commercial wound specialist.

*Candidates will be required to recertify every 5 years.